

Additional ideas for you and your children - Suitable free to access sites (Access to these is not compulsory. Your children may already be familiar with some of them. We just want to provide you with a variety of options to encourage learning.)

This is a working document. We will continue to add to it as we find more useful sites.

Name	Link	Information about the site
Numbots	https://play.numbots.com/	Great for helping children to recall number facts speedily and accurately (similar to Times Tables Rock Stars and uses the same log in) Year 1 and 2 have all accessed it at school. Other children may find it useful too. There is a quick link to log in on your children's St.Botolph's bookmark when logged as using their school email address.
TTRS	https://play.ttrockstars.com/	Great for helping children to recall multiplication and division facts speedily and accurately Children all have their own log in details. Years 3 and above have all accessed it at school. This will be set as part of their daily activities. Year 1 & 2 can access this using their Numbots log in. There is a quick link to log in on your children's St.Botolph's bookmark when logged as using their school email address.
White Rose	https://whiterosemaths.com/homelearning/	New home learning packs coming soon. We think these may also include video tutorials. As far as we are aware it will be from year 1 and above. Keep checking back on their website for updates.

DK Find Out	https://www.dkfindout.com/uk/	A great site for additional information on all sorts of subjects. In their words: we've built a safe place online for your child to see, learn, and explore almost everything.
